A top-down view of a healthy snack platter on a rustic wooden table. The platter, which is a small white plate with a gold rim, contains a heart-shaped arrangement of sliced mango, a spiral of sliced avocado topped with a raspberry, and two tomatoes cut into flower shapes. Fresh dill and basil are scattered around the ingredients. To the left of the platter is a piece of rustic bread with a dark, charred crust. Above the platter, a silver fork with an ornate handle lies on a piece of light-colored, textured fabric. To the right, a small burlap bag is filled with several large, ripe red tomatoes. In the bottom right corner, a sprig of green leafy herbs is visible. The overall aesthetic is rustic and natural.

Enjoyable as a healthy snack
